

Deborah G. Hankinson Award

The Deborah G. Hankinson Award honors local bar associations and young lawyer affiliates that demonstrate a commitment to access to justice in their communities and to raising financial support for legal service providers on a local and statewide basis. There will be only one award recipient for each division. In 2013, the Texas Access to Justice Commission began using an application process to determine local bar associations and young lawyer affiliates award recipients.

Each bar association has an opportunity to receive this award based on its division. The divisions are:

Division I: local and district bar associations with a membership of 500 or less

Division II: local and district bar associations with a membership of 501 to 1,999

Division III: local and district bar associations with a membership of 2,000+

Each young lawyer affiliate also has an opportunity to receive this award. There is one division for the young lawyer affiliate.

Award Criteria (Criteria and application can also be found online www.texasatj.org/awards)

Financial Support for Access to Justice (50%)

- ✓ Rate of voluntary ATJ contributions made at the suggested $150 level or more through State Bar dues statement (15 points). This information will be determined by the State Bar Membership Department.
- ✓ Local bar fundraising and donation efforts; examples include: bike ride, gala, golf tournament, pro bono prom, etc., with proceeds benefitting local legal aid organizations (15 points)
- ✓ Number of first time individual donors (15 points)
- ✓ Largest donation contributed by an individual (5 points)

Access to Justice – Initiatives and Awareness (50%)

- ✓ Specific efforts to increase access to legal aid services. Examples include hosting free legal advice clinic; creating a local lawyer referral service or reduced fee panel on the local lawyer referral service; efforts to increase pro bono participation; etc. (25 points)
- ✓ Specific efforts to increase awareness of access to justice issues on a local or statewide basis. Examples include inviting speakers to give presentations on access to justice, limited scope representation or other related topics; developing and providing presentations on topics related to access to justice and pro bono work; visiting local legislators to educate them about the importance of legal services to the poor; encouraging attorneys to bank at a Prime Partner Bank; etc. (25 points)

NOTE: To streamline award applications, you may have the access to justice portion of the State Bar of Texas Award of Merit application or the TYLA Awards of Achievement sent to the Texas Access to Justice Commission to be considered in your application for the Deborah G. Hankinson Award. You will need to check a box on the enclosed Deborah G. Hankinson Award Application to release this information to us.

Deborah G. Hankinson Award Nomination

The award honors local bar associations and young lawyer affiliates that demonstrate a commitment to access to justice in their communities and to raising financial support for legal service providers on a local and statewide basis.
